The Senior Class
Onancock High School
Onancock, Virginia
presents the

1965 TRIDENT

It is Better to Look Ahead and Prepare;

Than to Look Back and Regret.

With these words in mind, we, the Seniors of Onancock High School, shall assume our duties and responsibilities as citizens. We look forward with zeal and determination to the opportunities afforded us by this great country, and we shall endeavor to make this world a better place for all mankind.

The Thinkers

The epitomy of knowledge

Now, look at it MY way.

SENIOR HISTORY

The month is June; the year is nineteen hundred and sixty-five; and we, as Seniors, will soon bid farewell to these "Hallowed Halls of Ivy". As we think of the precious little time we have left at Onancock High, we find ourselves surrounded by the golden memories it has provided us. In recalling some of these memories, let's return to our freshman year.

As school opened in that September of "61", we were awed by the activities opened to us and the responsibilities we faced; but with Mrs. Pennewell and Mrs. Evans, as our homeroom teachers, our high spirits could not be dampened. Tom Duncan was chosen President; Robby Custis, Vice-President; Buck Boggs, Secretary; and Kay Wescott, Treasurer. Many of our boys were chosen for the football team; and later played a big part in basketball, baseball, and track. The girls enjoyed cheering, basketball, softball, and F.H.A. Quite a few of this sports-minded class also attended their first glorious Athletic Ball.

Summer vacation passed very quickly; Mrs. Kellam and Mr. Carey found themselves as homeroom teachers of an all too energetic group of "Silly Sophomores". Our officers were Kay Wescott, President; Mary C. Taylor, Vice-President; Trudy Davis, Secretary; and Gwenda Kellam, Treasurer. Jeannine Fonda and Martha Russell joined our class this year. Many more also found themselves in the ranks of athletes. The Beta Club and the Tri-Hi-Y opened their doors to us. We also undertook many projects, the most successful being the selling of cookies. Last but not least of a wonderful year was our unforgettable trip to Washington, D.C.

Another summer faded into the past and we returned to O.H.S. looking forward to just the very idea of being Juniors. Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Kellam took over this lively group with apprehension. Our officers were Trudy Davis, President; Joy Milliner, Vice-President; Mary C. Taylor, Secretary; and Kitty James, Treasurer. This year we were joined by Kathy Williams. First on our calendar was ordering our long-a-waited Class Rings. Next we prepared for our play, "The Womanless Wedding", which proved a big success. Many Beta members attended the annual convention held that year at Roanoke. Our profit-making projects of the past years, plus selling stationary this year, were very helpful as we presented our lovely prom, "Isle of Enchantment", on May 22, 1964.

A most memorable summer led us into our coveted year as "Mighty Sophisticated Seniors" with Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Kellan again at the helm. We elected officers as follows: Kathy Williams, President; Nancy Loflin, Vice-President; Martha Russell, Secretary; and Kitty James, Treasurer; after which we chose an annual staff to publish our yearbook, TRIDENT '65. New members to our class were Kandi Hardison, Bill Atkeison, and Mike Lake. Next, Class Pins were ordered. Parts were picked for our play, "So This is Bliss". Christmas came and went and our hearts beat-fast as answers to our college applications began to return, then the biggest day of our lives; - graduation!

Twelve years ago we walked unknowing into the world of knowledge and tonight we are about to take our first step down the unknown road we call the future.

CLASS PROPHECY

June 1975

Being the head nurse at Schnectady General Hospital, New York, I was recently assigned to a special case. I was very surprised to find that the patient was Steve Van Kesteren, who had become a Safari guide. Due to an unfortunate encounter with a wild boar, Steve had been flown in from the Republic of South Africa. During his convalescense, we reminised of our days at OHS. Between the two of us, we discussed our former classmates and found that they were widely scattered.

ALFRED SHRIEVES has recently renovated the popular "Crabpot Palace" at Onancock Wharf, and has employed the world-famous chef, HILTON MELSON.

ANN AMOS, Ambassador to Saudi Arabia, asks our support in the forth-coming Presidential election.

Let us not forget our able Congressman, JIMMY MILLINER, who has proved the greatest filibusterer this country has ever known.

Our little GWENDA KELLAM has forced Chuck Evans and Otha Mears and Son into retirement since becoming the Shore's most proficient auctioneer.

BUCK BOGGS and ROBBY CUSTIS, perennial playboys and co-owners of the "Eastern Shore Bunnie Club", Daugherty, Virginia, are now featuring the Blue Angel vocalist, KAY WESCOTT.

JIMMY PHILLIPS is employed at the club also, as doorman.

Please tune in on the next Miss America Pageant. DORIS ELLIOTT, one of New York's most popular models has been chosen to replace Bess Myerson and will assist M. C. Burt Parks at Atlantic City.

RICKY SAVAGE, traffic cop at the busy Onley intersection, recently told me that he still finds his track training at OHS invaluable in his line of work.

TOM DUNCAN has been awarded the contract to construct the much talked about Bridge-Tunnel which will link Tangier to Deep Creek.

BETTY ADKINS and GLORIA JOHNSON hold important secretarial positions in GREGG RUSSELL'S thriving "Honest Gregg's" Used Car Agency.

FRANCES HART has given up his professorship at Columbia University to devote full time tutorship to his growing family, now 15 in number. His is writing a revised edition of "Cheaper by the Dozen".

TOMMY CUSTIS is manager of the check-out counter at the Acme Market in Onancock.

WAYNE GREENE, who represents Ajax Chicken Farms, has proved himself one of the highest scoring bowlers in the country.

JIMMY JUSTIS, is keeper of the golf greens at a swank country club in New York.

KITTY JAMES, who did such a splendid job as treasurer of our class, has opened her own finance and loan company.

BOBBY COBB, director of "Cobb's School of Charm", is being ably assisted by SHARON WEAVER and KANDI HARDISON.

CLIFTON DIZE, Broadway producer, has obligingly returned to direct the Junior Woman's Club Follies of '75.

MARY CATHERINE TAYLOR did what all airline stewardesses dream of. She's now the wife of a Wall Street Executive.

LEO CHANDLER has been promoted head mechanic for General Motors Corporation.

WAYNE FITCHETT, local farmer, made headlines when he managed to eliminate the putting noises in his tractors, which were disturbing his chickens. Wayne no longer has to farm. His income is more than adequate in royalties.

SUE BUNDICK has replaced Mrs. Senn as business teacher at Onancock.

JOHN HURLBUT says he got his start in show business while playing the leading role in the Junior Class play. He now stars in the "I Love John" show.

CLASS PROPHECY

BILL ATKEISON is now an automotive designer and doing well too. He designs on a small scale of course; they're toy cars.

MIKE LAKE, the noted scientist, hasn't been heard from for six years, but is presumed closer to making contact with Pluto.

TRUDY DAVIS, who did such a grand job on our class annual, is now the editor of Poor Richard's Almanac.

BILL DALEY has become the first game warden to break more than 10 game laws in one year.

JOY MILLINER, who graduated as "Most Likely to Succeed", has been promoted to Fashion Editor for Vogue Magazine.

JEANNINE FONDA, successful businesswoman has recently acquired the garment industry at Parksley.

MARGUERITE FORMYDUVAL is currently featured at Carnegie Hall and says opera is still her favorite.

MIKE KEY went back south after graduation, bought a big plantation, and can sometimes be seen smoking Havanna Cigars on his front porch.

DIANNE LILLISTON has become the first female to act as a prison warden. She controls the ladies quarters at San Quentin.

JO ANN MILLINER has become a tree surgeon and specializes in diseases of fruit trees.

DARLENE NOCK has opened a new kindergarten which will accommodate 150 children.

CONNIE MEARS, who joined the Peace Corps, has been flown to New Guinea in an effort to help the natives there.

KATHY WILLIAMS, who for several years was employed by the FBI, is now private secretary to James Bond.

BARBARA FEARS, who went to prep school one year, has recently opened a School of Refinement in Accomac.

BARRY REW, who learned the hair-cutting trade at Deep Creek, has his own barber shop now, and has employed DONNA BRIGGS as his manicurist.

JOYCE PARKER, who sews most of her own clothes, has been offered, by several prominent figureheads in Washington, the important job of seamstress.

BONNIE WILLIAMS and CORA SCOTT have just recently returned from a trip abroad. They both plan to spend some time with relatives before venturing on their next adventure.

PAULINE LILLISTON, dietician at NAM Hospital, has been awarded the Betty Crocker Cooking Award.

GAYLE HARRISON works in a Typing Pool for DuPont Cement Company.

JENNY and JOYCE CUSTIS, who have done well in their medical careers, have been chosen by the Board of Medical Examiners, to sponsor a series of drives in the community of Onancock.

NANCY LOFLIN has opened a boat-rental service at Little Quarry, Daugherty, Va.

If you like television, be sure to tune in on the "Build a Muscle with Meg" show. MISS STEELE is famous for her physical fitness techniques.

JOAN TWYFORD, famous actress, was recently acclaimed for her excellent performance in the reproduction of "La Douce Vita".

Before leaving the hospital, Steve and I began to make plans for a class reunion. We enjoyed talking so much that we felt the rest of the class would enjoy being together as much as we had.

"JUNIORS OF 1965"

HISTORY

In September of 1962, one of the happiest, most confused classes of all times came to Onancock High. We were a little frightened of the years ahead, but we were eager to start.

We had our first class meeting of the year and elected class officers. Jo Anne Chambers, Bonnie Godwin, and Sammie Miles made the basketball team and many of our boys became J. V. football players. It was a very enjoyable year.

After a summer of fun, O.H.S. welcomed us as the "Silly Sophomores." We were all prepared for a year of hard work and much fun. Class officers were elected and many of us became members of the Beta Club.

Nancy Adkins, Jeannie Hart, and Judy VanKleef became new members of the basketball team.

This year we returned as the "Jolly Juniors."

We all missed Terry Nicolls and Walter Marks, but we welcomed Elizabeth Webb and Carson Diggs to our class.

First of all we elected class officers and decided on ways of making money. We sold stationery and held bakes. Shortly afterwards, we ordered our class rings. This caused much joy and excitement.

It was soon time for our class play and the year passed very rapidly.

We are all looking forward to our Senior year.

Officers LEFT TO RIGHT: Linda Bagwell, Vice-President; Kaydell Edwards, Secretary-Treasurer; Joan Twyford, President.

The students enjoyed the assemblies planned by the S.C.A. and exercised their privilege of voting in the mock Presidential election and in the student government election.

STUDENT COUNCIL ASSOCIATION

Officers L. to R.: Carol Moore, Vice-President; Joy Milliner, President; and Anne Amos, Secretary-Treasurer.

During the year we made plans to go to the Beta Convention in Richmond and in February we planned for the Induction Service.

BETA CLUB

The girls made some delicious things in the cottage's kitchen. At Christmas they have their own little party with cookies and other goodies that they make themselves.

FHA

One of the objectives of the Tri-Hi-Y is to give help to people in the community. At Christmas the clubs get together to give toys, food, and clothes to needy families.

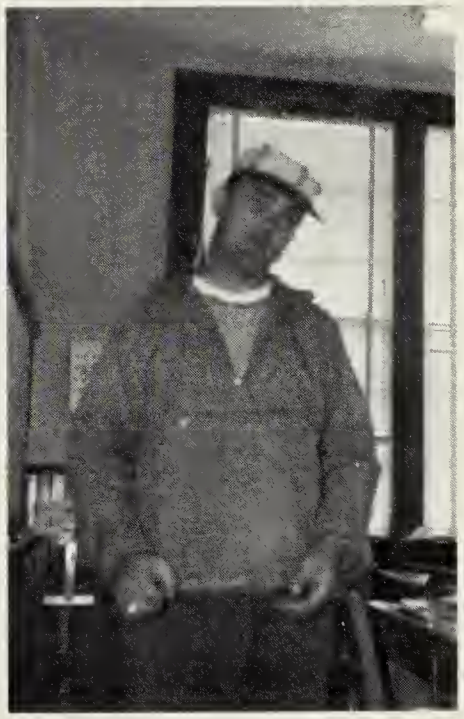
Do you suppose this will really get us into college?

Come on, Hilton, drop it on the line!

Yeah! so I'm studying. What of it?

SHEEE!



What in the world are you doing?

ZAAPP!

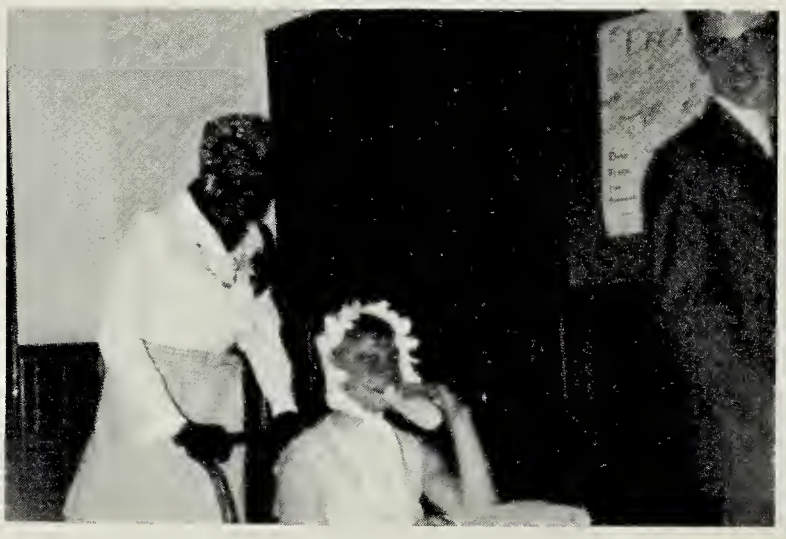
JUNIOR PLAY

THE WOMANLESS WEDDING

We are gathered together to join this man and this woman . . . (Oh come now!)

The proud Mother.

The girl who was jilted.



Aunt Africa had her hands full trying to keep the Bride's baby sister quiet during the wedding.

My! Doesn't the flower girl look cute?

The Bride was so nervous.

SENIOR PLAY

SO THIS IS BLISS

Dexter, all you do is sit there and moon! Could it be that you're in love with ANOTHER girl?

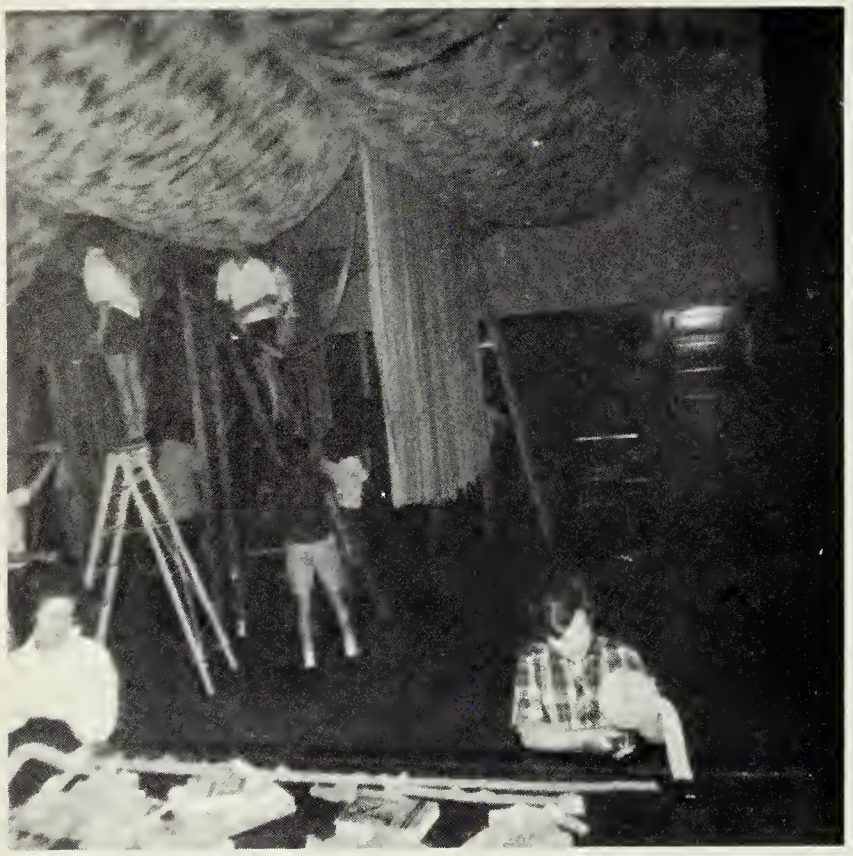
"You know what I always say, Deck, 'Love 'em and leave 'em'."

"Too bad we all had to get stuck in this town but thanks for a most enjoyable evenin'."

The parents had their problems, too.

"Well, Deck, what will it be--college or kids?"

"You little hellions, you heard me. Get out of here!"



We selected four different colors and we had to cut each strip the same size. What work, but we didn't mind. The ceiling turned out to be perfectly beautiful.

Height made no difference to the girls; they climbed the ladders and put the paper up, too. Our paper was put in eight sections and we thought we'd never finish, but we did.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

Early in February of our junior year, we began to make plans for our prom which was to be held in May. Committees were selected and they began their work to select a theme, a color scheme, other decorations, and a setting. After the theme was chosen and the supplies were ordered, we waited with eager anticipation for their arrival. When everything had arrived, all we had to do was wait for the week before the prom to begin to decorate the auditorium.

Finally May was ushered in with sunny weather. We spent days after school as well as nights, decorating and watching the transformation. We were so proud of our work and of keeping the theme from the seniors. The day of the prom, May 22, brought last minute touches and excitement. That night we danced to the music of Eddie Allen under the setting of "ISLE OF ENCHANTMENT". We all shall never forget that wonderful occasion.

ISLE OF ENCHANTMENT

By clear water and under blue skies . . .

we danced and enjoyed ourselves.

After all that dancing, we had to have some of that delicious punch and some of those good cookies.

Between dances we sat under the cool palms and enjoyed the music.

Thanksgiving Day the sun shone on the rainbow and the theme of the float "Devils Reign Again."

At the end of the rainbow will sit our King and Queen. Who will they be?

Two empty chairs kept everyone guessing and in eager anticipation of the night to come.

That night at half time all suspense was ended for King Jimmy and Queen Mary were crowned, congratulated, and cheered.

For the guidance and time she has given to the class and especially to the annual staff, we wish to express our appreciation to our sponsor, Mrs. Lotta Booth.

To our teachers, our parents, and our friends, we say "Thank You". For your patience, time, effort, and guidance through what has been a sometimes stormy but rewarding past, we will ever be grateful.

Speaking on behalf of the entire staff, we find it hard to believe that our yearbook has come to a close. In trying to capture the highlights of our 1964-65 school year, we sincerely hope that in the future this edition of the TRIDENT shall bring to mind wonderful memories of Onancock High.
